

Assembly Republican Caucus Public Safety Legislative Package Roll Out – January 30th

1. AB 27 – Sentencing Enhancements – Exempts firearms use-related sentencing enhancements from a current law requirement judges must dismiss a sentencing enhancement if it is “in the furtherance of justice.” Instead provides that a judge would not be required to dismiss the enhancements for criminal defendants who commit felonies while armed with, or while using, firearms during the commission of a felony, ensuring these criminals will serve longer sentences. Author: Assemblyman Tri Ta
2. AB 75 – Restore Pre-Prop 47 Serial Shoplifting Penalty– Increase the penalty for petty theft with multiple prior theft-related convictions. This change requires approval by the voters. Author: Assemblyman Josh Hoover
3. AB 88 – Notify Crime Victims of Parole Hearings – Requires a District Attorney to notify crime victims and their family members if they will not be sending a representative to attend a parole hearing. Legal representation at these hearings is paramount in ensuring that dangerous criminals remain behind bars and away from our communities. Author: Assemblywoman Kate Sanchez
4. AB 303 – APPS Reform – Requires the California Attorney General’s Office to share any investigative reports and notes on individuals on the Armed & Prohibited Persons System (APPS) with local law enforcement agencies. Author: Assemblywoman Laurie Davies

5. AB 328 – Gun Violence – Restore mandatory of 10-20-Life firearms enhancements: This will ensure that anyone who brandishes, discharges, or inflicts great bodily injury with a firearm during the commission of a violent felony will be held accountable. Author: Assemblyman Bill Essayli

6. AB 330 – Domestic Violence Resource Website – Requires the Office of Emergency Services to host and update a website with resources for victims of domestic violence. Author: Assemblywoman Diane Dixon

7. AB 335 – Repeal Prop 47 – Our businesses and communities are hurting. By repealing Prop 47, we can ensure our businesses and communities know that California law enforcement has their back and will continue to use all tools available to protect and serve. Author: Assemblyman Juan Alanis

8. Criminal Street Racing and Side Shows Surveillance – Current law requires law enforcement to observe criminal street racing and side shows in person, also interpreted as live via surveillance equipment, in order to legally seize these vehicles. With limited resources and reduced staffing levels, many of these crimes go unanswered. By expanding law to allow law enforcement to use recorded surveillance footage, agencies can keep up with the growing trend of dangerous street racing and side shows in our neighborhoods. Author: Assemblyman Juan Alanis

9. Criminal Justice Report – Requires the LAO to compose a 10 year report following the passage of AB 109 (2011) to include rehabilitation data, funding and staffing for counties, and rehabilitation programming options. Author: Assemblyman Tri Ta

10. CDCR Secret Credits Transparency – Inmates are being released early via a secret credit system without transparency to District Attorneys and victims. This new legislation would require the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) to notify District Attorneys of credit calculations in advance with a minimum 30 day notice and avenue for the DA to respond before release. Author: Assemblyman Joe Patterson

11. Increase Penalty for Fentanyl Dealers – Increase penalties for possession for sale, sale, transportation, and importation of fentanyl, which was responsible for nearly 6,000 overdose deaths in California in 2021. Joint Authors: Assemblyman Jim Patterson, Assemblyman Juan Alanis, Assemblyman Josh Hoover
